aware of our great fortune. On a crisp October day, we can stand on the threshold of the world. That part of the Atlantic which is our realm is magnified in the lens of autumn air. The salt wafts in on the crisp breeze and is spice on the palate. The pampas grass rustles. The very edge of the bay turns the suspended grains of sand with a swish. All of human pursuits fade, as well they should. The spirit is afloat. We bob on that surface of diamonds with the ducks and gaze about with proud necks. We enjoy.

Though each region has its own beauty, to shore dwellers none can approach that

The Dennies would much rather follow our red brick path.

Both Bob and Sandra Dennie say they like banking with us because of the many, many services we provide and the way we treat them.

Whether they bank inside, or outside at one of our drive-up windows, doesn't matter. The Dennies, like so many of our customers, would rather take a few minutes longer to drive to our place than bank at several others closer to home.

The way we see it — just like the Dennies of Mattapoisett — there are banks and there is our bank.

Even the younger members of the family — Robin and Eric — like banking with us.

show music drifts from St. Anthony's Parish Hall beneath a dark and quiet church. A bustle of backstage activity is seen at ORRHS auditorium. The aroma of home-baked delicacies floats from kitchens everywhere.

And it is all in preparation of the Big Event of November 5. Practices for the Gong Show are being conducted in total secrecy with no possibility for a candid camera to sneak in but a few questions are buzzing around town. Are the venerable Town Selectmen REALLY going to appear on stage November 5 - will it be town business (a quick town meeting with a quorum perhaps?) or just a little monkey business? Gong Show? Will we hear the roar of the Lions Club filling the auditorium?

Are we to enjoy the lovely talent of Danny Lomba and Wendy Rezendes who won the High School Gong Show last spring? Did someone say something about a Bumble Bee Act? Do you think the judges will show up? Will there truly be Home-baked goodies at intermission - made with love in Woman's Club kitchens did you say?

Questions - Questions - Questions! All we have are questions but the answers will be forthcoming on November 5 in the ORRHS auditorium at 8:00 P.M. when the curtain rises on the talented and the fun-loving. Family fun and community spirit is the name-of-the-game - so if you haven't purchased your ticket yet, RUN, DON'T WALK to one of the many Gong Show ticket sellers: Seaport and Mattapoisett Pharmacies, The Toy Box, Heritage Arts, Romeo's, Olde Oxford Farms, Fairhaven Pharmacy, Bowlmor Lanes; or CALL Laura Cook, 758-4529; Margaret Smith, 758-2426; Allison Henderson, 758-4373; Ellie Blackburn, 758-2557; Joann Demski, 758-3385; Alex Barnett, 758-9069; and Lillian Hunter, 758-4295. Seating is on a 'first come' basis.

SEE YOU AT THE GONG SHOW!

in helping others - she earned her cap as a volunteer at Tobey Hospital and taught C.C.D. at St. Anthony's. She writes that Nasson College is science oriented and that her courses don't "leave me much spare time. I have also been working actively with the Freshmen Class officers to organize money-making events and I work in the Dining Commons as my work-study job. It has been a pleasant experience and I hope it will continue to be."

Rudy Nashan, the Regional coordinator for the National Endowment of the Arts, will come and speak on the types of services that the coordinator could provide and the types of funding sources that the coordinator could call on to serve Mattapoisett. They will also be addressing the questions of how these programs could improve both the basic learning skills of the students and their appreciation of school and of the learning process.

The P.T.C. is holding this special open meeting for you. We are an impartial board sponsoring this program as a public service to the community. Many people have strong views about the arts and we would like both pro and con views aired.

Refreshments will be served after the questions and answer session. Anyone not being able to come but would like to air their views are asked to call President Kathy Riley.

The Book Fair is coming soon. Volunteers are asked to call Pat Clarkson, Center School chairman; or Mary Ann Richardson, Old Hammondtown School chairman; or the President.

We are still accepting memberships for the club. Send to school with your child.

SCOUTS TO HOLD ALUMINUM DRIVE

As part of the 1977 Help Young America Campaign, the Cadette-Senior Girl Scout Troop of Rochester will hold an aluminum drive on Saturday, November 12th. Riding on trucks, the Scouts will stop at houses in Rochester asking for soft drink and beer cans, other household aluminum and the labels from a variety of Colgate-Palmolive products.

This year's Help Young America Campaign, the annual program through which the Colgate-Palmolive Company has distributed more than $1,800,000 to six of the nation's foremost youth organizations, is bigger and better than ever. Colgate is offering 5¢ for every label sent in from Colgate toothpaste, Irish Spring soap, Dynamo laundry detergent, Palmolive dishwashing liquid, Ajax cleanser and Curad adhesive bandages. The Girls Scouts are asking consumers to save these cash-value labels for them so that they can earn money

In this issue of Presto Press is an ad showing all trips to be made by our Minibus during the month of December. Please cut it out for your reference. We are sorry that we did not get it in in time to publicize the trip to Mystic, but we did try to let you all know by word of mouth.

There will be no big bus trip in the month of November, but we plan a big bus trip in December, probably to the South Shore Plaza in Braintree. This is now fully enclosed and should be very comfortable for everyone in December weather. We hope that we will experience no more breakdowns or delays with buses.

DUFF PLUMBING ANNOUNCES

We have added another truck to our fleet expressly for the Marion, Wareham & Rochester area residents. We have had such an increase in calls that we have decided to install a direct, toll-free "'Hot Line" for these customers. We have our plumber, Chet, who is a local resident and knows the area well. He will have a well-stocked supply of plumbing needs right at hand.

Are you disappointed to find yourself waiting two days for a plumber, then have him arrive with a helper to carry the tool box, and receive a bill for two men? We pride ourselves on sending one man on service calls.

We take good care of our old customers; it 's new customers we are looking for.

PARTICIPATED IN REGATTA

Brian Klinka, son of Mrs. Beverly Klinka of 1 Homestead Court, Mattapoisett, participated in the thirteenth annual Head-of-the-Charles Regatta on Sunday, October 23. Brian, a Mechanical Engineering student at Worcester Polytechnic Institute, along with his fellow crewmen, competed in the "Eights" class for the Boston Mayor's Trophy in the traditional three-mile upstream event.

The first Head-of-the-Charles Regatta, held in October 1965, drew nearly one hundred boats and was an instant success for rowers and spectators alike. It has grown to become the largest in the world, and draws the very finest rowing talent from North America and beyond. (Monday, October 24, Boston Globe statistics: 720 boats, 3049

A THANK YOU

To: Kenneth Hathaway, Jr., Kenneth Hathaway, Sr., Arnold Chadwick and Allen T. Parker, members of the Rochester Police and Fire Departments:

We wish to thank you for your kind, calm, and capable assistance in the birth of our son, Benjamin, born at home Sunday, September 18, 1977.

My family and I recently moved to this area, and we did not even know where the Fire Department was! But, when we needed you, you lost no time in finding us.

From the bottom of our hearts, thank you, and God bless you all. Sincerely, Scott, Elaine, Tracy, Kerran and Benjamin Robbins.
